The Consecration and Ordination of a Bishop

The ministry of the church is the ministry of Christ, its chief shepherd and high priest. Those who are ordained are called to share Christ's work, to speak in his name and build up the Church of which Christ is the head.

This service of ordination perpetuates a pattern of ministry in direct continuity—through a long line of succession—with the apostles. Just as Jesus commissioned his first disciples, so by the laying on of hands the President will commission this disciple to mission. That is, to witness to the resurrection and to preach the good news of salvation in all the world. The particular role of the Bishop—while remaining a deacon and priest—is to proclaim and guard the faith, to preside of the sacraments, to lead the Church's prayer and to hand on its ministry.

During the service the candidate will be asked to confirm his commitment to these priorities. All who are present will be asked to undertake to support the ordination of this candidate, not least because as bishop he will act not just on behalf of particular local Christian communities, but of the whole Church. This is followed by the invocation of the Holy Spirit and the laying on of hands. Mark will be anointed with Chrism, signifying his role of leadership within the royal priesthood of Christ's people; he will receive a copy of the Holy Scriptures, both to remind him of his duty to proclaim the gospel and of the centrality of God's Word; and he will receive a pastoral staff, symbolising his sharing in the ministry of Christ the Good Shepherd.

In accordance with ancient tradition, three bishops are required for the consecration of a new bishop. The Archbishop, as Metropolitan, presides over the whole service, but his ministry is visibly shared with the other ordaining bishops. This sharing of ministry illustrates and embodies our shared apostolic vocation and demonstrates the unity of the Church we serve.

We are all turned outwards towards the world that God loved so much that he sent his only Son. We are prepared for that goal and end of all things, when Christ himself will present to the Father a world made perfect by his work—when all God's people share in the joyful communion of love that binds the Father and the Son, in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

The Ordinand

The next Suffragan Bishop of Berwick in the Diocese of Newcastle will be the Venerable Mark Wroe, currently Archdeacon of Northumberland.

Mark was educated at St Mary's University, London and Anglia Polytechnic University and trained for ministry at Ridley Hall, Cambridge. He served his title at All Saints Chilvers Coton with St Mary the Virgin, in the Diocese of Coventry and was ordained Priest in 1997. In 2017, Mark was additionally appointed Area Dean of Newcastle Central Deanery.

Mark took up his current role as Archdeacon of Northumberland in 2019, having been Acting Archdeacon since 2018. He is married to Caroline, who is a renal consultant and medical research professor. ## † The Gathering and Presentation

The Greeting

The Archbishop greets the people

Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All Blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

There is one body and one spirit.

All There is one hope to which we were called;

One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

All one God and Father of all.

Peace be with you

All and also with you.

The Archbishop introduces the service

God calls his people to follow Christ, and forms us into a royal priesthood, a holy nation, to declare the wonderful deeds of him who has called us out of darkness into his marvellous light.

The Church is the Body of Christ, the people of God and the dwelling-place of the Holy Spirit. In baptism the whole Church is summoned to witness to God's love and to work for the coming of his kingdom.

To serve this royal priesthood, God has given particular ministries. Bishops are ordained to be shepherds of Christ's flock and guardians of the faith of the apostles, proclaiming the gospel of God's kingdom and leading his people in mission. Obedient to the call of Christ and in the power of the Holy Spirit, they are to gather God's people and celebrate with them the sacraments of the new covenant. Thus formed into a single communion of faith and love, the Church in each place and time is united with the Church in every place and time.

Prayers of Penitence

We run the race set before us, surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses.
Therefore let us lay aside every weight,
and the sin which clings so closely,
bringing them to Jesus in penitence and faith.

All Father eternal, giver of light and grace,
we have sinned against you and against our neighbour,
in what we have thought,
in what we have said and done,
through ignorance, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We have wounded your love and marred your image in us.
We are sorry and ashamed, and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us,
forgive us all that is past;
and lead us out from darkness
to walk as children of light.
Amen.

May almighty God have mercy on you,
forgive you your sins,
and bring you to everlasting life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Declaration of Assent

The Archbishop reads the Preface to the Declaration of Assent

The Church of England is part of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, worshipping the one true God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It professes the faith uniquely revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds, which faith the Church is called upon to proclaim afresh in each generation. Led by the Holy Spirit, it has borne witness to Christian truth in its historic formularies, the Thirty-nine Articles of Religion, the Book of Common Prayer and the Ordering of Bishops, Priests and Deacons. In the declaration you are about to make, will you affirm your loyalty to this inheritance of faith as your inspiration and guidance under God in bringing the grace and truth of Christ to this generation and making him known to those in your care?

The ordinand responds

I, Mark Wroe, do so affirm, and accordingly declare my belief in the faith which is revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds and to which the historic formularies of the Church of England bear witness; and in public prayer and administration of the sacraments, I will use only the forms of service which are authorized or allowed by Canon.

Oath of Allegiance

The ordinand says

I, Mark Wroe, Clerk in Holy Orders, do swear by Almighty God that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, Her heirs and successors according to law.
So help me God.

The Oath of Canonical Obedience

The ordinand says

I, Mark Wroe, Clerk in Holy Orders, do swear by Almighty God that I will pay true and canonical obedience to the Lord Archbishop of York and to his successors in all things lawful and honest. So help me God.

The Archbishop says

Let us stand to pray for Mark and for the ministry of the whole people of God.

Please stand.

Silence is kept.

¶ The Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Emma Wroe reads

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

Arise, shine; for your light has come,
and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you.
For darkness shall cover the earth,
and thick darkness the peoples;
but the Lord will arise upon you,
and his glory will appear over you.
Nations shall come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

Lift up your eyes and look around;
they all gather together, they come to you;
your sons shall come from far away,
and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms.
Then you shall see and be radiant;
your heart shall thrill and rejoice,
because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you,
the wealth of the nations shall come to you.
A multitude of camels shall cover you,
the young camels of Midian and Ephah;
all those from Sheba shall come.
They shall bring gold and frankincense,
and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord.

Isaiah 60.1–6

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Please remain seated.

Second Reading

The Rt Revd Dr Jonathan Frost, Dean of York, reads

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles— for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given to me for you, and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that is, the Gentiles have become fellow-heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the working of his power. Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Ephesians 3.1–12

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Please stand for the Gospel Acclamation.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Christ was revealed in flesh, proclaimed among the nations and believed in throughout the world.

All Alleluia.

1 Timothy 3.16

An organ fanfare announces the Gospel. Please remain standing.

Gospel Reading

The Gospeller says

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.' When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

"And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for from you shall come a ruler
who is to shepherd my people Israel."'

Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, 'Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.' When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Matthew 2.1–12

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

An organ improvisation honours the reading of the Gospel.

The Creed

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is,
seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

¶ The Liturgy of Ordination

The Declarations

The ordinand stands before the Archbishop, who addresses the congregation

Bishops are called to serve and care for the flock of Christ. Mindful of the Good Shepherd, who laid down his life for his sheep, they are to love and pray for those committed to their charge, knowing their people and being known by them. As principal ministers of word and sacrament, stewards of the mysteries of God, they are to preside at the Lord's table and to lead the offering of prayer and praise. They are to feed God's pilgrim people, and so build up the Body of Christ.

They are to baptize and confirm, nurturing God's people in the life of the Spirit and leading them in the way of holiness. They are to discern and foster the gifts of the Spirit in all who follow Christ, commissioning them to minister in his name. They are to preside over the ordination of deacons and priests, and join together in the ordination of bishops.

As chief pastors, it is their duty to share with their fellow presbyters the oversight of the Church, speaking in the name of God and expounding the gospel of salvation. With the Shepherd's love, they are to be merciful, but with firmness; to minister discipline, but with compassion. They are to have a special care for the poor, the outcast and those who are in need. They are to seek out those who are lost and lead them home with rejoicing, declaring the absolution and forgiveness of sins to those who turn to Christ.

Following the example of the prophets and the teaching of the apostles, they are to proclaim the gospel boldly, confront injustice and work for righteousness and peace in all the world.

The Archbishop addresses the ordinand directly

Mark, we trust that you have weighed and pondered all this, and that you are now fully determined to devote yourself to this ministry to which God has called you. We pray that you may offer to him your best powers of mind and spirit, so that as you follow the rule and teaching of our Lord you may grow up into his likeness, and sanctify the lives of all with whom you have to do.

And now, in order that we may know your mind and purpose, you must make the declarations we put to you.

Do you accept the Holy Scriptures as revealing all things necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ?

Answer I do so accept them.

Will you be diligent in prayer, in reading Holy Scripture, and in all studies that will deepen your faith and fit you to bear witness to the truth of the gospel?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you lead your people in proclaiming the glorious gospel of Christ, so that the good news of salvation may be heard in every place?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you teach the doctrine of Christ as the Church of England has received it, will you refute error, and will you hand on entire the faith that is entrusted to you?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you be faithful in ordaining and commissioning ministers of the gospel?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you promote peace and reconciliation in the Church and in the world; and will you strive for the visible unity of Christ's Church?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you be gentle and merciful for Christ's sake to those who are in need, and speak for those who have no other to speak for them?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you endeavour to fashion your own life and that of your household according to the way of Christ and make your home a place of hospitality and welcome?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you work with your fellow servants in the gospel for the sake of the kingdom of God?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you accept the discipline of this Church, exercising authority with justice, courtesy and love, and always holding before you the example of Christ?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

Will you then, in the strength of the Holy Spirit, continually stir up the gift of God that is in you, that the good news of Christ may be proclaimed in all the world?

Answer By the help of God, I will.

The congregation stands and the ordinand turns to face them.

The Archbishop says

Brothers and sisters, you have heard how great is the charge that Mark is ready to undertake, and you have heard his declarations.

Is it now your will that he should be ordained?

All It is.

Will you continually pray for him?

All We will.

Will you uphold and encourage Mark in his ministry?

All We will.

The ordinand turns to face the Archbishop, who continues

Mark, remember always with thanksgiving that God has entrusted to your care Christ's beloved bride, his own flock, bought by the shedding of his blood on the cross.

You are to govern Christ's people in truth, lead them out to proclaim the good news of the kingdom, and prepare them to stand before him when at last he comes in glory.

You cannot bear the weight of this calling in your own strength, but only by the grace and power of God. Pray therefore that you may be conformed more and more to the image of God's Son, so that through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit your life and ministry may be made holy and acceptable to God.

Pray earnestly for the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The ordinand and the congregation kneel.

A period of silence is kept, then the Cantor sings the VENI CREATOR.

Veni Creator

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire;
thou the anointing Spirit art,
who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above is comfort, life and fire of love;
enable with perpetual light
the dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soilèd face with the abundance of thy grace;
keep far our foes, give peace at home;
where thou art guide no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
and thee, of both, to be but one;
that through the ages all along this may be our endless song:

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Words Latin, paraphrased by John Cosin (1594–1672)

Tune VENI CREATOR, mode viii

Please remain kneeling.

The Ordination Prayer

The congregation remains kneeling. The ordinand continues to kneel before the Archbishop, who stands to pray

We praise and glorify you, almighty Father, because in your infinite love you have formed throughout the world a holy people for your own possession,
a royal priesthood, a universal Church.

We praise and glorify you because you sent your only Son Jesus Christ,
the image of your eternal and invisible glory,
the firstborn of all creation and head of the Church.

We praise and glorify you that by his death he has overcome death;
and that, having ascended into heaven,
he poured out your Holy Spirit upon his disciples, to give them power to preach the gospel to the ends of the earth and to build up your people in love.

And now we give you thanks
that you have called this your servant,
whom we ordain in your name,
to share as a bishop in the ministry of the gospel of Christ, the Apostle and High Priest of our faith and the Shepherd of our souls.

Therefore, Father, through Christ our Lord we pray:

Here the Archbishop lays his hands on the head of the ordinand, and the Archbishop says

Send down the Holy Spirit on your servant Mark for the office and work of a bishop in your Church.

The Archbishop continues

Through your Spirit, heavenly Father, fill this your servant with the grace and power which you gave to your apostles, that as a true shepherd he may feed and govern your flock,
and lead him in proclaiming the gospel of your salvation in the world.

Make him steadfast as a guardian of the faith and sacraments, wise as a teacher, and faithful in presiding at the worship of your people.
Through him, with his fellow servants in Christ,
increase your Church and renew its ministry, uniting its members in a holy fellowship of truth and love.

Give him humility,
that he may use his authority to heal, not to hurt;
to build up, not to destroy.
Defend him from all evil, that he may, as a faithful steward, be presented blameless with all your household and, at the last, enter your eternal joy, through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and your Holy Spirit,
belong glory and honour, worship and praise,
now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please sit.

The Giving of the Bible

The newly ordained Bishop stands and the Archbishop gives him a Bible, saying

Receive this book,
as a sign of the authority given you this day
to build up Christ's Church in truth.
Here are words of eternal life.
Take them for your guide and declare them to the world.

The Anointing

The newly ordained Bishop kneels, and the Archbishop anoints him, saying

Mark, I anoint you with this oil of gladness.

May the Lord keep you in the joy, simplicity and compassion of his Gospel.

May God, who anointed the Christ with the Holy Spirit at his baptism, anoint and empower you to bring good news to the poor,
to proclaim release to the captives,
to set free those who are oppressed and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

All Amen.

Please stand.

The Welcome

The newly ordained Bishop faces the people, and the Dean of York says to him

Mark, guard the truth that has been entrusted to you by the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

All We welcome you as a shepherd of Christ's flock.
Build up the Church in unity and love,
that the world may believe.

¶ The Liturgy of the Eucharist

The Peace

The Archbishop says

We are fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God through Christ our Lord, who came and preached peace to those who were far off
and those who were near.

Ephesians 2.19,17

All The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

The Deacon says

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Music is played as the table is prepared.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you
All and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Christ is the Good Shepherd of the whole flock,
for which the Holy Spirit ordains bishops to govern the Church bought by the blood of the eternal covenant.
In this joyful community of faith,
your people, filled with the gifts of the Spirit,
assemble together in one communion of love.
Here the gospel is set forth and fulfilled in the Supper of the Lord to make your Church a sign of love and unity for all.

Therefore with angels and archangels,
and with all the company of heaven,
we proclaim your great and glorious name,
for ever praising you and singing:

The Cantor sings

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth, pleni sunt caeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis.
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Lord, you are holy indeed, the source of all holiness;
grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit, and according to your holy will,
these gifts of bread and wine
may be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;

who, in the same night that he was betrayed,
took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.
In the same way, after supper he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

The Deacon says

Great is the mystery of faith.

All Christ has died:
Christ is risen:
Christ will come again.

And so, Father, calling to mind his death on the cross, his perfect sacrifice made once for the sins of the whole world;
rejoicing in his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension,
and looking for his coming in glory,
we celebrate this memorial of our redemption.
As we offer you this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving,
we bring before you this bread and this cup and we thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

Send the Holy Spirit on your people and gather into one in your kingdom
all who share this one bread and one cup, so that we, in the company of the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, may praise and glorify you for ever,
through Jesus Christ our Lord;
by whom, and with whom,
and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory be yours,
almighty Father, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please kneel. Silence is kept.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

Giving of Communion

The Archbishop says

Draw near with faith.
Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ
which he gave for you,
and his blood which he shed for you.
Eat and drink in remembrance that he died for you,
and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

Communicant members of all Christian Churches are invited to receive communion.

Any member of the congregation may come to receive a blessing. Please carry this service book as an indication to the ministers.

Gluten-free communion wafers are available. When the time comes to receive communion, please ask the minister for a gluten-free wafer.

Music during Communion

The Cantor sings

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Please stand.

Prayer after Communion

Lord God,
the bright splendour whom the nations seek:
may we who with the wise men have been drawn by your light discern the glory of your presence in your Son,
the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

All We thank you, gracious Father,
for welcoming your children to feast in your kingdom;
by your love unite us
and with your Spirit send us,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

¶ The Sending Out

The Blessing

The Archbishop says

All Our help is in the name of the Lord,
who has made heaven and earth.

All Blessed be the name of the Lord,
now and for ever. Amen.

All Christ the Son of God perfect in you the image of his glory and gladden your hearts with the good news of his kingdom;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.
Amen.

The Giving of the Pastoral Staff

The Archbishop gives the newly ordained Bishop a pastoral staff, saying

Keep watch over the whole flock
in which the Holy Spirit has appointed you shepherd.
All Encourage the faithful, restore the lost,
build up the Body of Christ.

The Dismissal

The Deacon says

Go in the peace of Christ.
All Thanks be to God.
